

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING & CONSULTING TO MEET THE NEEDS OF AN EVER-CHANGING WORLD.

WE'RE SIMPLY THE BEST AT WHAT WE DO.

To: The Students of LJB Security Training, LLC

Subject: Process of Applying for a State of Connecticut Security Officers License (Guard Card)

Within the recent past, the Federal Government and the State of Connecticut have changed the requirements for applicants to submit to a background check which is required to obtain a State of Connecticut Security Officers License.

This change now requires all applicants to first complete an “ONLINE PRE-APPROVAL BEFORE” attempting to have their fingerprints taken.

However, while all of the documentation and instructions are attached to this letter, in some cases the process can be confusing and unfortunately neither the Federal Government nor the State of Connecticut offer any “Technical Support” to those who are attempting to complete the required process.

Because of this lack of “Tech Support” some students have reported having difficulty in completing this process and have reached out to us for assistance. We DO NOT provide technical assistance or support whatsoever so please DO NOT contact us for any technical support as we do not offer it.

Therefore, we have implemented the following solution to assist our students with this process.

For a fee of $80.00 paid in person we will schedule an appointment with the student for an in person, appointment to process your application in its entirety or you can follow these simple instructions that the State of Connecticut was kind enough to provide you with. The completion of this required step in the application process and we are happy to process the application in its entirety for the fee of $80.

Any student who is interested in utilizing this service should speak with their instructor.

Be Safe,

Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights

Requesting Entity: _____

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing.¹ These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.

- You must be provided an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later), by the agency that will receive your criminal history results, when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement must explain the authority for collecting your fingerprints and associated information and whether your fingerprints and associated information will be searched, shared, or retained.²
- You must be advised in writing of the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your FBI criminal history record as set forth at 28 CFR 16.34.
- You must be provided the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in your FBI criminal history record (if you have such a record).
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record.
- If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks> and <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>.
- If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI by submitting a request via <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
- You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.³
